

The song club Laulukerho

invites everyone to sing famous Russian songs in Russian and Finnish!

Come alone, with your friends or family members!

Practice your Russian and Finnish language skills by singing songs with a piano accompaniment!

Where: The Family House in the Arts and Crafts area, Rantakatu 15

When: Tuesdays, February 6, 13 and 27 at 18-19.

Note: The schedule for March singing sessions will be announced later.

We will first focus on singing well-known Russian songs,
which were written for both adults and children and which are available in both the Russian and Finnish languages.
Later we will add more modern songs in these languages.

Children can sing along with adults or play in the Family House facilities.

Laulukerho activities are free and open to the public

Organizers: the Russian Friends of Joensuu, the Multicultural Association of Joensuu, the Family House of Joensuu and UEF student volunteers
